

Introducing the Utrecht International Center

We have some exciting news to share with you: the International Welcome Centre Utrecht Region changed its name to Utrecht International Center.

Why the change?

The new name better suits our services and mission to be a welcoming place for all internationals living and working in the Utrecht region. We are here for the whole community: whether you are new or around for a while. Our goal is to make your time here as smooth and enjoyable as possible by providing all the information, support, and community connections you need.

What is new?

We will continue our services as usual. You can now find and reach out to us using our new contact details:
