Local beers, cheers!

Did you know?

1

Vincent van Gogh

lived and attended school in Zevenbergen? You can still pass by his old boarding school in the Stationsstraat. Next to it, you will find a special Van Gogh audio spot providing further information.

2

Willemstad used to play a significant part in defence of our country against enemies? Press the red button in the Cannon Chamber in visitor center The Mauritshuis and relive the story of (the defence of) Willemstad!

3

Moerdijk is situated on a border of various sorts? It forms the geographical boundary between Brabant and Holland, it functions as border between Catholics and Protestants, sand and clay and it is the dividing line between calling French Friend potatoes either 'fries' or 'chips', in Dutch that is. Enjoy these contrasts by choosing one of the many cycling tours.

4

The Rozemarijnstraat in Willemstad refers to the promiscuous women in the past? They would wander alongside the soldier houses. Follow the footsteps of the soldiers of Orange and imagine yourself in the atmosphere of working ladies.

5

In Zevenbergen, Willemstad and other places different beers are brewed? Come and taste them, and take some home!
